ORDER :

In the reference 1st read above, the Commissioner of Commercial Taxes, Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad framed a charge against Sri S. Satyanarayana, former Commercial Tax Officer, Panjagutta Circle for showing gross negligence in issuing Form-A certificates dated 30.04.2010 & 25.01.2011 to a Dealer for the assessment years 2009-2010 and 2010-2011 declaring erroneously that the dealer had paid an amount of Rs.60,91,063 and Rs.1,52,98,104 under VAT & CST acts respectively by way of adjustments of the Input Tax Credit by the dealer and also declaring therein that there were no dues for the years 2009-2010 and 2010-2011 from the dealer erroneously; even though the dealer had not actually paid any tax for the assessment year 2009-2010 and paid only an amount of Rs.5,677 for the assessment year 2010-2011, which is contrary to instructions issued by the Commissioner, Commercial Tax issued in reference No. All (2)/201/2012, dated: 16.10.2012. The Charged Officer was directed to submit his written statement of defence.

2. In the reference 2nd read above, Sri S. Satyanarayana, Commercial Tax Officer (retired) has submitted his written statement of defence stating that the Form-A certificates were issued by him were earlier to the circular instructions issued by the Commissioner of Commercial Taxes dated 16.10.2012 and subsequently the certificates were cancelled by his successor and revised certificates were issued in accordance with the instructions and requested to drop further action against him.

3. In the reference 3rd read above, the Commissioner of Commercial Tax has referred the matter to Government stating that Sri S. Satyanarayana, Commercial Tax Officer retired from service on 30.6.2014 for taking further action under A.P. Revised Pension Rules, 1980 and also stated that the issue was purely interpretation of the provisions governing the subject and there is no loss of revenue and requested to take a lenient view in the matter.

4. Government after careful examination of the matter and keeping in view the report of the Commissioner of Commercial Taxes, Telangana, Hyderabad, hereby drop further action against Sri S.Satyanarayana, Commercial Tax Officer (Retd.) in the matter.

5. The Commissioner of Commercial Taxes, Telanagana, Hyderabad shall take necessary further action accordingly in the matter.
